Annual Report

of the

Northport Village Corporation

For the Year Ended December 31

1924

President's Report

Appended hereto in the Treasurer's report, from which it appears that as of December 31, 1924, the cash resources of the Village were $1186.95. No liabilities of any consequence have been accrued.

Two improvements of consequence are now in contemplation: The first, and perhaps of the most immediate importance, is the connecting of the sewer line running from the neighborhood of the Auditorium with the main outlet. It seems vital that this work should be immediately prosecuted to completion. At present the outlet on the line above-mentioned is on the beach at a point much used as a thoroughfare, and the condition resulting therefrom is both unsightly and unsanitary.

The second improvement in contemplation is the straightening of the road and the erection of a permanent bridge at Kelley's Cove. The existing culvert over the watercourse at that point is narrow and in poor condition and the approaches are hazardous.

The prosecution of the work in contemplation as above noted has been delayed through lack of money. The amount available for permanent improvements is and will continue to be limited so long as the Village income continues at its present rate. The amount received as the Village share of general taxes is absorbed practically in its entirety by current expenditures, such as care of roads, lights, garbage collection, and so forth. Permanent improvements to any extent are possible only through additional taxes annually voted by the members of the Corporation. The practice heretofore has been to authorize a levy of $500.00. Whether or not this amount shall be increased is a matter for the voters to determine.

Respectfully submitted,

IRA M. COBE, President.

August 4th, 1925.
